

Department of Education

As a New York City resident, you have over 700 high school programs to choose from. That's why it's important to stay informed and be mindful of deadlines and requirements every step of the way.

It's never too early to get a head start on your high school search. As summer begins, there are many resources and events that will help guide you through High School Admissions:

Summer Workshops

The summer workshops are an opportunity for you and your family to learn more about High School Admissions directly from the experts. The Office of Student Enrollment is offering two workshops this summer throughout the month of July in every borough:

- High School Admissions workshops will provide an introduction to High School Admissions and the different types of high school programs available to prospective applicants.
- Specialized High Schools workshops will focus on admission to the Specialized High Schools.

2013-2014 Directory of New York City Public High Schools

The 2013-2014 Directory of New York City Public High Schools is now online! The Directory contains information about public high schools in New York City as well as detailed information about High School Admissions. All public school 7th graders will receive copies at their school before the end of the school year. If you'd like to pick up extra copies, visit your local enrollment office or attend one of this summer's workshops. Additional resources and publications will be posted on our Publications page as they become available.

2013-2014 High School Admissions Calendar

Don't lose track of time! Key High School Admissions dates for the 2013-2014 school year can be found here.
