City of New York Parks & Recreation is beginning to recruit lifeguard candidates for the 2013 summer season and is encouraging New Yorkers to try out for the Municipal Lifeguard Training Program. Parks lifeguards play a critical role in the operation of 8 beaches and 55 outdoor pools. Working as a lifeguard provides young people with the chance to be part of a large, public organization committed to public safety. The minimum qualifications to enter the course are that participants: be at least 16 years of age at the time of employment; have eyesight no worse than 20/30 in one eye and 20/40 in the other; be able to swim 50 yards in 35 seconds with proper form. Those who qualify will enter our training program consisting of swimming and rescue techniques, first-aid and CPR. The program is free; in fact, candidates who successfully complete the course will be paid for their time spent in training once they begin working as a lifeguard. First-year lifeguards will earn at least $13.57 an hour, and most lifeguards work a 6-day week, for a weekly salary of at least $651.36. We hope you will join us in helping to create another summer of safe fun at our beaches and pools. If you have any questions or suggestions, please contact us at lifeguard@parks.nyc.gov

Gray Matters is an advisory and consulting group whose members have professional experience in finance, real estate, law, marketing, medicine, education, government and architecture. Their advice and skills are offered free to community-based not-for-profit organizations in the New York City area. We work with Executive and Board leadership of NY area-based nonprofit organizations of all sizes to help them address their strategic and operational problems and to plan for growth or restructuring. There is no set structure for our services. We work with your organization for as long as we mutually feel we can be of use, and with as many Gray Matters members as are needed to address your issues. We invite you to visit www.graymattersnyc.org to see who we are and learn more about the types of organizations we have helped and the kinds of services we have provided. Write us at info@graymattersnyc.org briefly describing your specific need or needs and indicate how and when we should contact you.

LawHelp/NY (www.LawHelp.org/NY) is an online tool for helping low-income New Yorkers solve their legal problems. The site provides free, user-friendly resources that supply critical legal information in fifteen areas of law (such as family, housing and immigration), and referral information to free legal aid programs. With a Spanish mirror site (www.ayudalegalny.org), LiveHelp (an online chat service in English and Spanish that helps visitors find legal information), and resources in 35 languages – LawHelp.org/NY is the first line of defense for vulnerable New Yorkers, especially immigrants, Hispanics and limited English proficient residents facing legal problems. LawHelp/NY has seen a dramatic upsurge in usage during the recession. In 2011, the site was visited 451,025 times. LawHelp/NY runs the Training and Information Statewide! (TIPS) program which conducts community outreach throughout the state.

Age-friendly NYC College Link is a new database connecting older adults with opportunities at New York City colleges and universities. Want to learn something new? City of New York Parks & Recreation is beginning to recruit lifeguard candidates for the 2013 summer season and is encouraging New Yorkers to try out for the Municipal Lifeguard Training Program. Parks lifeguards play a critical role in the operation of 8 beaches and 55 outdoor pools. Working as a lifeguard provides young people with the chance to be part of a large, public organization committed to public safety. The minimum qualifications to enter the course are that participants: be at least 16 years of age at the time of employment; have eyesight no worse than 20/30 in one eye and 20/40 in the other; be able to swim 50 yards in 35 seconds with proper form. Those who qualify will enter our training program consisting of swimming and rescue techniques, first-aid and CPR. The program is free; in fact, candidates who successfully complete the course will be paid for their time spent in training once they begin working as a lifeguard. First-year lifeguards will earn at least $13.57 an hour, and most lifeguards work a 6-day week, for a weekly salary of at least $651.36. We hope you will join us in helping to create another summer of safe fun at our beaches and pools. If you have any questions or suggestions, please contact us at lifeguard@parks.nyc.gov

City of New York Parks & Recreation is beginning to recruit lifeguard candidates for the 2013 summer season and is encouraging New Yorkers to try out for the Municipal Lifeguard Training Program. Parks lifeguards play a critical role in the operation of 8 beaches and 55 outdoor pools. Working as a lifeguard provides young people with the chance to be part of a large, public organization committed to public safety. The minimum qualifications to enter the course are that participants: be at least 16 years of age at the time of employment; have eyesight no worse than 20/30 in one eye and 20/40 in the other; be able to swim 50 yards in 35 seconds with proper form. Those who qualify will enter our training program consisting of swimming and rescue techniques, first-aid and CPR. The program is free; in fact, candidates who successfully complete the course will be paid for their time spent in training once they begin working as a lifeguard. First-year lifeguards will earn at least $13.57 an hour, and most lifeguards work a 6-day week, for a weekly salary of at least $651.36. We hope you will join us in helping to create another summer of safe fun at our beaches and pools. If you have any questions or suggestions, please contact us at lifeguard@parks.nyc.gov

City of New York Parks & Recreation is beginning to recruit lifeguard candidates for the 2013 summer season and is encouraging New Yorkers to try out for the Municipal Lifeguard Training Program. Parks lifeguards play a critical role in the operation of 8 beaches and 55 outdoor pools. Working as a lifeguard provides young people with the chance to be part of a large, public organization committed to public safety. The minimum qualifications to enter the course are that participants: be at least 16 years of age at the time of employment; have eyesight no worse than 20/30 in one eye and 20/40 in the other; be able to swim 50 yards in 35 seconds with proper form. Those who qualify will enter our training program consisting of swimming and rescue techniques, first-aid and CPR. The program is free; in fact, candidates who successfully complete the course will be paid for their time spent in training once they begin working as a lifeguard. First-year lifeguards will earn at least $13.57 an hour, and most lifeguards work a 6-day week, for a weekly salary of at least $651.36. We hope you will join us in helping to create another summer of safe fun at our beaches and pools. If you have any questions or suggestions, please contact us at lifeguard@parks.nyc.gov

Gray Matters is an advisory and consulting group whose members have professional experience in finance, real estate, law, marketing, medicine, education, government and architecture. Their advice and skills are offered free to community-based not-for-profit organizations in the New York City area. We work with Executive and Board leadership of NY area-based nonprofit organizations of all sizes to help them address their strategic and operational problems and to plan for growth or restructuring. There is no set structure for our services. We work with your organization for as long as we mutually feel we can be of use, and with as many Gray Matters members as are needed to address your issues. We invite you to visit www.graymattersnyc.org to see who we are and learn more about the types of organizations we have helped and the kinds of services we have provided. Write us at info@graymattersnyc.org briefly describing your specific need or needs and indicate how and when we should contact you.

LawHelp/NY (www.LawHelp.org/NY) is an online tool for helping low-income New Yorkers solve their legal problems. The site provides free, user-friendly resources that supply critical legal information in fifteen areas of law (such as family, housing and immigration), and referral information to free legal aid programs. With a Spanish mirror site (www.ayudalegalny.org), LiveHelp (an online chat service in English and Spanish that helps visitors find legal information), and resources in 35 languages – LawHelp.org/NY is the first line of defense for vulnerable New Yorkers, especially immigrants, Hispanics and limited English proficient residents facing legal problems. LawHelp/NY has seen a dramatic upsurge in usage during the recession. In 2011, the site was visited 451,025 times. LawHelp/NY runs the Training and Information Statewide! (TIPS) program which conducts community outreach throughout the state.
