Dear Latha:

Literacy Partners strengthens families by empowering parents through education. With our free classes, low-income parents gain the skills to create a better life for themselves while transferring important literacy skills to their children. Together, we can close the achievement gap before children even begin school.

Offering adult education classes in all five boroughs of New York City, Literacy Partners helps parents living at or below the federal poverty level to not only improve their reading and writing, but gain the skills needed to ultimately earn High School Equivalency (HSE) diplomas.

In addition, students who want to learn English can enroll in English for Speakers of Other Languages (ESOL) classes.

We invite you to partner with us by referring parents to register immediately for one of our classes. Please direct your inquiries to me at vlevi@literacypartners.org. Thank you for your time and interest.

Sincerely,

Vulcanus Levi
Program Coordinator
