C. Landmarks Committee – David Helpern and Jane Parshall, Co-Chairs

LM-1: Item 1

LM-2: Item 2

LM-3: Item 3

Item 1: 1000 Fifth Avenue - The Great Hall of the Metropolitan Museum of Art - Interior Landmark Brett Gaillard, Head of Capital Projects at museum presenting. A Beaux-Arts style interior space designed by Richard Morris Hunt and constructed in 1905. Application is for installation of 4 digital displays: two in the north vestibule and two in the south vestibule.

WHEREAS The Great Hall is a Beaux Arts-style interior space designed by Richard Morris Hunt and constructed in 1905;

WHEREAS the applicant would like to install 4 digital display boards within the Great Hall - 2 on the north side of the Great Hall and 2 on the south side of the Great Hall behind the existing columns;

WHEREAS the display boards are now installed; the museum received a temporary permit from the Landmarks Preservation Commission to do this; the museum would like the screens to be permanent;

WHEREAS the display screens would not impact the historic fabric of the Great Hall; the screens would be attached to plaster only and could be easily removed;

WHEREAS the permanently installed screens at 6' wide x 3'6" high would be slightly smaller than the existing temporary screens, would be more centered than the existing temporary screens and would have a less intrusive mounting;

WHEREAS the screens would cut down on the amount of paper in the form of maps and other notices that the museum has been handing out; the screens would help visitors find their way around the museum;

WHEREAS given the location of the proposed screens, the disruption to the landmarked Great Hall is minimal;

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that this application is approved as presented.

Community Board 8 Manhattan approved this resolution by a vote of 41 in favor, 1 opposed, 0 abstentions, and 0 not voting for cause.

Item 2: 895 Park Avenue (Upper East Side Historic District) - John B. Murray, Architect - A Classicizing Art-Deco style building designed by Sloan & Robertson and constructed in 1929. Application is for the replacement of existing penthouse windows with new wood windows conforming in design, configuration, and finish to the 1997 window master plan and new pergola at 20th-floor penthouse terrace facing Park Avenue.

WHEREAS 895 Park Avenue sits on the southeast corner of 79th Street and Park Avenue, and;

WHEREAS the building instituted a window master plan in 1997 that permitted the replacement of existing steel double-hung windows with aluminum windows of very similar profile, and;

WHEREAS applicant seeks to replace original steel windows - while also adding one window on the 20th floor - with custom wood windows that closely conform to the original profiles and dimensions, and;

WHEREAS said windows are located in the penthouse apartment that occupies the 19th and 20th floors of 895 Park Avenue, and;

WHEREAS applicant proposes to add a painted metal pergola to a terrace at the 20th floor facing Park Avenue, and;

WHEREAS said pergola closely imitates traditional wood pergola structures in its details proposing an ironic materials reversal – steel windows replaced by wood windows that imitate steel and “wood” pergola details executed in powder coated metal, and;

WHEREAS the proposed pergola will be self-supporting and anchored to the terrace floor while not touching the existing masonry wall, and;

WHEREAS ample precedent exists for pergolas on buildings both of this period and in the Historic District generally, and;

WHEREAS the proposed window replacement alters only the material called for in the window master plan of 1997, and;

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that this application is approved as presented.

Community Board 8 Manhattan unanimously approved this resolution by a vote of 42 in favor, 0 opposed, 0 abstentions, and 0 not voting for cause.

Item 3: 1312 Madison Avenue (Carnegie Hill Historic District) - Alta Indelman, Architect - A Renaissance style building designed by George W. Spitzer and constructed in 1897. Application is for legalization of an existing awning and HVAC unit.

WHEREAS 1312 Madison Avenue is a Renaissance style apartment building designed by George W. Spitzer and constructed in 1897;

WHEREAS the ground floor corner retail space is occupied by the restaurant Hiramasa;

WHEREAS the existing awning and the existing HVAC unit are in violation of the Madison Avenue retail establishment guidelines (Madison Avenue Master Plan); the awning extends farther than the existing storefront for the restaurant and is boxier;

WHEREAS the non-compliant awning hides the boxier HVAC unit; the current tenant installed the awning without the necessary permit from the Landmarks Preservation Commission; the previous tenant installed the very large A/C unit;

WHEREAS the conundrum for the applicant is how to install the condenser portion of the A/C and thus remove the non-compliant awning; other buildings on the block have yards and low roofs for A/C equipment;

WHEREAS the applicant presented 3 different options for a condenser all of which the applicant considered not to be optimal since the base of the building is stone;

WHEREAS because of the stone, a smaller condenser (which would reduce the profile of the awning) cannot easily be swapped in without a very expensive renovation; such an expensive renovation would create a severe hardship for the tenant;

WHEREAS Lo van der Valk of Carnegie Hill Neighbors suggested a compromise whereby the applicant would be allowed to keep both the existing non-compliant awning and the existing bulky HVAC unit for a five-year period by means of a temporary permit. At the end of five years, the applicant would return to the Landmarks Preservation Commission.

WHEREAS the Landmarks Committee anticipates that technology will advance with smaller units becoming available before the temporary 5-year permit expires;

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that this application is approved on a provisional basis only for a period of 5 years.

Community Board 8 Manhattan approved this resolution by a vote of 41 in favor, 1 opposed, 0 abstentions, and 0 not voting for cause.
