Item 1 – RIOC Update (0:11)

No RIOC Update this meeting.

Item 2 – Library Update (2:30)

Paul Krikler introduced Kate Federiconi, representative from the Roosevelt Island Library (2:30). First, Kate announced that library will be closed Tuesday, July 14th for installation of new computers. She also announced the kickoff of the “Summer at the Library” program with activity cards for kids, bingo cards for adults, and free giveaways (3:10). In addition to this, there will be special new library cards available to celebrate USA 250. The library is also launching a community survey for adults, asking what the public would like to see in programs at their local libraries. Following the survey announcement, Kate mentioned the “Storycore” program, which asks members of the public to record personal family histories that may be added to the NYPL permanent archives. Lastly, Kate brought up a new teen program called “The Bloom Room and the Sunroom” running for 12 sessions in July and August (5:25). Kids will also have a new writing session on Fridays at 2pm beginning July 10th (6:05).
